About Us

Safety is essential for an individual. It is especially important for workers partaking in hazardous jobs. They go to work under critical conditions that are increasingly life-threatening. These workers take such risks so that our nations across the globe can prosper and grow. So, since the establishment of H AnD S Safety Solutions in 2015, we have aimed to provide industry-standard safety equipment like Safety Helmets, Safety Eyewear and Body Protection at a reasonable rate for workers and their employers.

H AnD S Safety Solutions has also branched out and have specialized in electrical consumables like connectors, tools & tackles, and fuses. Our top-of-the line electronics and electrical range have cable sleeves, emergency lights, a clamp meter, and much more.

We have a wide range because we want to cater to your needs; our motto is "we are here for your needs." We strive to provide the best service possible at all times.

We can save you covered if you ever need a lending hand to keep you safe. With our wide coverage of safety products, you can easily ensure that all your workers are safe and sound. Choosing us will be worth your money and more.
